Has Been a Prisoner Since Jan. 31 as a Suspicious Character.

Inspector McLaughlin has secured a lot devidence against William A. Crane, a place under surveillance for two days. of evidence against William A. Crane, a sev nineteen-year-old prisoner, who is now incarcerated in the Tombs.

Crane was arrested Jan. M by Detective Donohue, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, as a suspicious character in his possession were found a number of skeleton keys.

He was arranged in the Yorkville Court, but at the time refused to give his name. He was subsequently sent to the Tombs.

Last night Inspector McLaughlin learned that the young man had lived at 61 First street. Detectives Reap and Holland found three trunks full of clothing, sealskin sacques, bric-a-brac, glov-s and all sorts of ladies' and gentlemen's Among other things were eighty-two pawn-tickets, ten of which were for goods pawned in Philadelphia. The property is estimated to be worth from $1,500 to $2,000.

The young man said this morning that his name was Crane. The police do not recognize him as a erook whom they have had in custody before. Inspector McLaughlin acknowle edges, however, that he is a very accomplished furnished-room thief.
